Content: Basic Information about Studying Abroad

Going abroad is always worth it!

Many Ways Abroad

Exchange Programs

Individual Study Abroad Organized by you (Free Mover)

Master's Degree abroad

International Internship

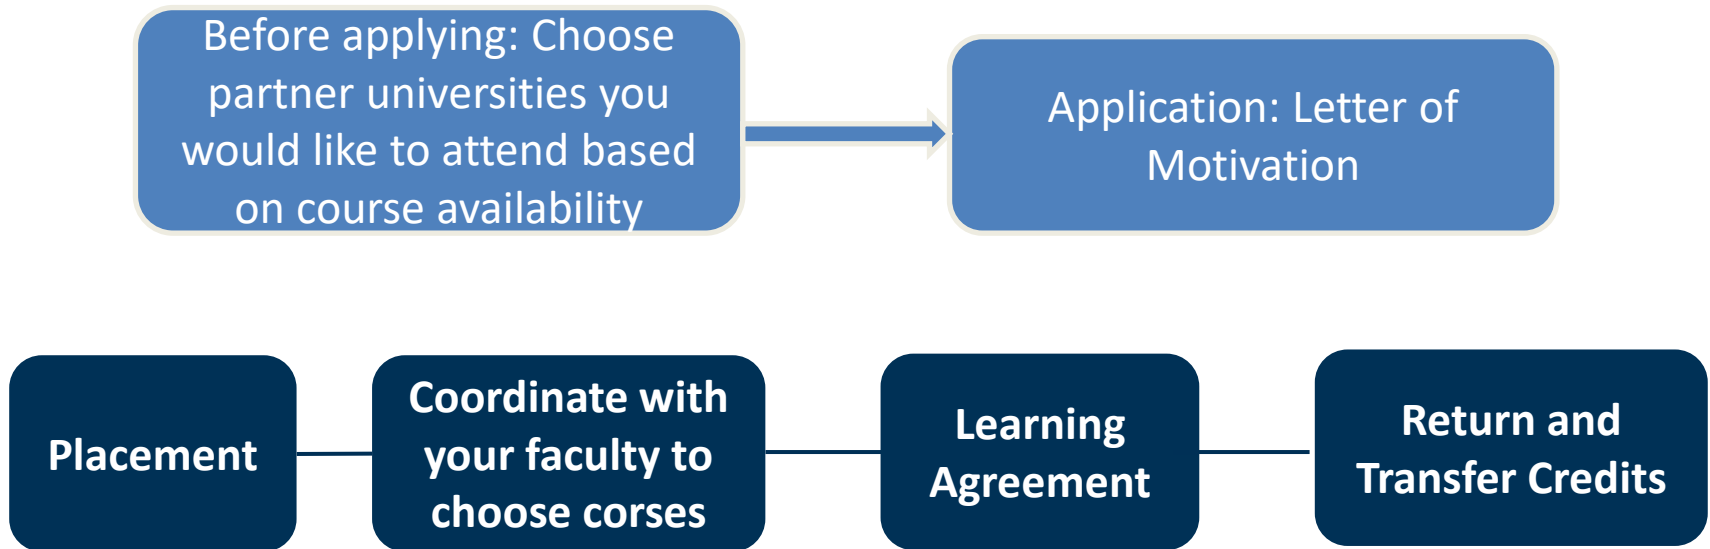

Short Programs (Language Course, Summer/Spring Schools)

Exchange possibilities through the Mannheim membership in the ENGAGE.EU network- an alliance of leading European universities

Credit Transfer from Time Abroad

Studying abroad does not necessarily delay graduation because the credits earned abroad can be transferred to the University of Mannheim.

The Departmental Exchange Coordinators from your faculty are happy to help with course choices and transferring credits.

Exchange programs of the University of Mannheim in Europe

Exchange programs in Europe are usually part of the Erasmus-Program.

The Erasmus Scholarship is (usually) automatic: currently €490-€600 per month.

Including a tuition waiver, of course.

Also available for the United Kingdom! (select „special program“)

Additionally, there are Erasmus-Online-Language Courses, a top-up for “Green Travel” and financial support for students with children, students with disabilities, first-generation students and students who work to support themselves.

Exchange programs of the University of Mannheim Overseas

Overseas

All programs include a tuition waiver.

Additionally, you can apply for PROMOS or the Baden-Württemberg-Scholarship.

Overseas (as well as European) partnerships are based on bilateral exchange agreements = partner universities.

In addition, there are multilateral agreements within the so-called “State Programs Baden-Württemberg” with various states and provinces in the US and Canada.

Application Deadline for Exchange Programs

When to apply and when to go abroad

Undergraduate students:

Exchange usually in their 5th or 6th semester

→ Application usually in their 3rd semester:

15 October for overseas or 31 January for Europe

Social Sciences: additional application option on 30 April in their 2nd semester to go abroad in their 4th semester

B.Sc. Economics: slightly earlier deadline for Europe in January

Graduate students:

Exchange in their 3rd or 4th semester

→ Application usually in their 1st semester:

15 October for overseas or 31 January for Europe

Duration: usually 1 Semester, sometimes 2 semesters are possible

Research your options early: for some programs or scholarships you have to apply 14 months in advance!

Application Deadlines*

Overview at www.uni-mannheim.de/aaa/deadlines

*Application for all degree programs, except for Business and BA4.

Your Application

Study Abroad Application Example 15 October Overseas-Application

Priority 1: University of A

Priority 2: University of B

Priority 3: State Program C

Priority 4: University of D

Priority 5: State Program E

Priority 6: University of F

Priority 7: University of G

For each deadline you can submit one application with up to seven target universities.

You cannot mix overseas and Europe: separate deadlines!

Please make sure you fulfill the individual requirements of each university in your application!

Only apply for exchange programs which interest you!

If you accept an exchange spot (e.g. in Overseas) you cannot apply for another exchange (e.g. Europe) for the same semester.

Application Procedure and Components
