Press Release

Mannheim, 15 March 2023

Online Information Event for Prospective Students

On 28 March 2023, prospective master's students from all over the world can inform themselves about the master's programs at the University of Mannheim and campus life in the so-called Quadratestadt Mannheim ("city of squares").

From 8.30 a.m. to 6. p.m., the University of Mannheim will present its master's programs in the fields of business administration, economics, law, humanities, and social sciences as well as informatics and mathematics. In live streams and live chats, staff members of the University of Mannheim will answer questions on the contents of the programs of study, the application and admissions process and the possibilities for going abroad. In addition, students will talk about their studies, semesters abroad, internships and campus life at the University of Mannheim. The participants also can discover the campus online and learn more about living in Mannheim.

No registration is necessary to participate. Participation is free.
