

Friday 9 September

10:15-10:25 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

1	10:25-11:05	Thomas Gschwend	Judicial Politics and New Ways to Recover Latent Preferences
2	11:05-11:45	Marc Helbling	Terrorism and Migration
	BREAK
3	12:00-12:40	Marc Debus	The Impact of Political Institutions on Decision-Making within Parties and Parliaments
4	12:40-13:20	Sabine Sonnentag	Recovery From Daily Job Stress: The Role of the Supervisor

Friday 23 September

10:15-10:25 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

5	10:25-11:05	Monika Undorf	cancelled and moved to 7 October
6	11:05-11:45	Jochen Gebauer	Religiosity does not humble believers
	BREAK
7	12:00-12:40	Richard Traunmüller	Empirical Democracy Research: Free Speech, Cancel Culture and Self-Censorship
8	12:40-13:20	Florian Keusch	Methodological Research on Using Digital Trace Data to Answer Social Science Research Questions

Friday 30 September

10:15-10:25 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

9	10:25-11:05	Georg Alpers	AN INTRO to our research program on anxiety
10	11:05-11:45	Thomas Gautschi	Capture-Recapture Models for Hidden Populations
	BREAK
11	12:00-12:40	Bernhard Ebbinghaus	Comparative Welfare State Analysis: Welfare states in or for crises?
12	12:40-13:20	Edgar Erdfelder	Why stochastic modeling is indispensable in Cognitive Psychology

Friday 7 October

10:15-10:25 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

13	10:25-11:05	Irena Kogan	Current perspectives in migration &amp; integration research
14	11:05-11:45	Monika Undorf	How (and why) people know what they know.
	BREAK
15	12:00-12:40	Valentin Lang	The Political Economy of the Backlash Against Globalization
16	12:40-13:20	Stefan Münzer	Use-inspired, Experimental Investigations into Learning and Individual Differences

	13:20-13:30	Wrap-up (Thomas Gschwend)
--	-------------	---------------------------	--

