

Thursday 12 September

8:30-8:40 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

1	08:40-9:20	Thomas Gschwend	Judicial Politics and New Ways to Recover Latent Preferences
2	9:20-10:00	Thomas Bräuninger	They are not all the same. Preferential voting and electoral reform
	BREAK
3	10:15-10:55	Florian Keusch	Methodological Research on Using Digital Trace Data to Answer Social Science Research Questions
4	10:55-11:35	Marc Helbling	Muslim religious rights and Islamophobia

Friday 13 September

8:30-8:40 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

5	08:40-9:20	Michaela Wänke	Election Posters of Right and Left Candidates Emphasize Different Personal Traits
6	9:20-10:00	Marc Debus	The Impact of Political Institutions on Decision-Making within Parties and Parliaments
	BREAK
7	10:15-10:55	Stefan Münzer	Comfortable, but with side-effects: Sense of direction getting lost?
8	10:55-11:35	Jochen Gebauer	A social learning perspective on the Big Two of agency and communion
	BREAK
9	11:45-12:25	Valentin Lang	The Political Economy of Inequality in the European Union

Thursday 19 September

8:30-8:40 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

10	08:40-9:20	Richard Traunmüller	Survey Experiments in Empirical Democracy Research
11	9:20-10:00	Sabine Carey	Perceptions of human rights and agents of violence
	BREAK
12	10:15-10:55	Marc Ratkovic	Squeezing p-values out of Large Language Models
13	10:55-11:35	Melanie Sauter	The Neutrality Paradox: Humanitarian Aid in Autocracies
	BREAK
14	11:45-12:25	Harald Schoen	Studying human beings in the political arena

Friday 20 September

8:30-8:40 Introduction to Faculty by Thomas Gschwend

15	08:40-9:20	Frank Kalter	Integration in migration societies
	9:20-9:30	Wrap-up (Thomas Gschwend)

