

Directions to Mannheim

1. From Frankfurt Airport (FRA)

International travelers usually reach Mannheim via Frankfurt Airport. From Frankfurt Airport to Mannheim you can either go by train or order a shuttle service.

1.1 ICE trains take you to Mannheim Main Station in about 30 minutes. Mannheim main station is a transportation hub in the immediate vicinity of the University of Mannheim. It takes only about 10 minutes to walk from the station to the Welcome Center and the Guesthouses. To get from the station to the university you may as well take tramline 1 (direction "Schönau") or tramline 5 (direction "Heidelberg"). Please get off at the stop "Schloss".

For further information on traveling to Mannheim by train please check the section Additional Information

1.2 A convenient alternative to the train is a private pick-up shuttle service which will take you directly to the Welcome Center / Guesthouse or another address of your choice.

For further information on pick-up shuttle services please check the section Additional Information.

2. By Car

Traveling by car you need to take the autobahn A6, exit "Mannheim Mitte". Take B 37 and follow it past the Planetarium and then turn left following the sign indicating "Universität". Once you have passed Mannheim main station you are on Bismarckstraße leading you directly past the Schloss where the university is located. The main entrance of the Schloss is located in the east wing. Following Bismarckstraße you will pass by the east wing first. Unfortunately, the University of Mannheim does not have a visitor's car park. However, there are two public garages located close by, one directly next to the west wing of the Schloss and one in N2. For further information on parking in the vicinity of the Guesthouses, please check our website.

3. Campus Map

There is a campus map enclosed indicating all points of interest on campus such as the main entrance, the Welcome Center, Mannheim main station and the Guesthouses.
