Program

Novel Data Sources, New Methods and Computational Approaches for Understanding Discrimination and Bias

MZES

A5, 6 Room 230/231

February 19-21, 2025

Organized by

Nicole Schwitter, Johanna Hölzl, Daria Szafran & Johanna Gereke

mzes mannheimer zentrum für europäische sozialforschung

UNIVERSITÄT MANNHEIM

Wednesday, February 19, 2025

18:30　Registration
19:00　Welcome Dinner
　　　　"THE EAST", N1 1, 68161 Mannheim

Thursday, February 20, 2025

MZES, Room 230/231

09:00　Welcome
09:10　Kevin Munger (European University Institute):
　　　　Twitching, Fast and Slow: Experimentally Improving the Quality of Political Livestream Chats
09:50　Rob Voigt (Northwestern University):
　　　　Language as a Mechanism for Discrimination

10:30　Coffee Break

11:00　Melissa Sands (London School of Economics) & Bryce Dietrich (Purdue University):
　　　　Measuring racial avoidance on virtual streets
11:40　Marc Helbling (MZES):
　　　　How anxiety affects immigration attitudes: Psychophysiological measures in lab experiments.
12:20　Didier Ruedin (University of Neuchâtel):
　　　　Fleeing or avoiding immigrants: Evidence from a lab in the field study

13:00　Lunch Break (Catering at the MZES)

14:00　Susanne Veit (DeZIM):
　　　　Indirect bias measures in online surveys
14:40　Ricarda Nater-Mewes (Universität Wien):
　　　　Ecological Momentary Assessments to assess discrimination and its health consequences in the daily lives of persons with a migration background

15:20　Coffee Break

15:35　Nicole Schwitter (MZES):
　　　　AI-Driven Visual Stimuli: Advancing Vignette Experiments in Social Science Research
16:15　Panel Discussion: Florian Keusch (University of Mannheim), Jörg Dollmann (MZES, DeZIM), Eva Zschirnt (University of Amsterdam)
　　　　Challenges, opportunities and avenues for future research
17:15　Poster Presentations:
　　　　Oliver Rittmann (MZES): Gendered Patterns of Parliamentary Attention
　　　　Dorian Tsolak (University of Bielefeld): Assessing Stereotypes in Visual Data
　　　　Joshua Claassen & Jan Karem Höhne (DZHW, Leibniz University Hannover): Synthesizing LGBTQ-related attitudes: Comparing LLM-based data to survey data from respondents recruited through social media
　　　　Christine Emmer (Universität Mannheim): Discrimination in the Lab: A Meta-Analytic Review of Causal Effects on Mental Health
　　　　Korinna Lindemann & Sandra Morgenstern (MZES): Varieties of Discrimination: The Case of Ethnic Minorities in the European Union
18:00　End of day

19:00　Dinner
　　　　"Friedrichs", Friedrichsplatz 14, 68165 Mannheim

Friday, February 21, 2025

MZES, Room 230/231

08:40　Mauro Martinelli & Friedolin Merhout (University of Copenhagen):
　　　　Using Internet Search Data for Comparative Longitudinal Research: The Rise of the Radical Right Across Europe
09:20　Daria Szafran (Universität Mannheim):
　　　　Measuring the effect heterogeneity of a seven-day Instagram abstinence on users' body image by combining survey and donated data

10:00   Coffee Break

10:20   Juliane Kühn (FAU Erlangen-Nürnberg):

Using deepfakes to study discrimination in job application processes: Experimental research on the effects of attractiveness, gender and ethnicity

11:00   Johanna Gereke (MZES):

Social Context and the Interpretation of Religious Signals: Theory and Evidence from a Large-Scale Face-to-Face Survey Experiment in Turkey

11:40   Gabor Simonovits (Central European University):

Reducing housing discrimination: Evidence from a field experiment in Hungary

12:20   Farewell

~12:35   Lunch (Catering at the MZES, or take-away); End of Workshop

UNIVERSITÄT
MANNHEIM

mzes   mannheimer zentrum
für europäische sozialforschung