

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

Selection Statutes for the Master's Program
Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.)

as at 10 December 2020

(Bulletin of the President's Office (Amtliche Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats) No. 23/2020, Part I, pp. 34 et seqq.)

1st amendment as at 4 November 2021

(Bulletin of the President's Office (Amtliche Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats) No. 21/2021, pp. 33 et seqq.)

The present version is a non-official version including the aforementioned amendments. Only the version in the Bulletin of the President's Office is legally binding.

In the German language version of these Selection Statutes, this sentence deals with the subject of gender-neutral language. For the English language version, this is not relevant and therefore omitted.

Section 1 – Scope

(1) ¹If there are more applicants than study places for the abovementioned degree program, the University of Mannheim conducts its own selection process in accordance with the regulations of higher-ranking legislation. It is governed by these Statutes. ²The decision is made in consideration of the applicants' aptitude for the degree program and the typical subsequent profession.

(2) ¹Sections 2 to 4 of these Statutes apply to all applications regardless of whether or not there is a limited number of study places or a selection procedure takes place; section 37 subsection 1 HZVO and section 6 subsection 3 sentence 4 of the regulations on admission and enrollment (Zulassungs- und Immatrikulationsordnung der Universität Mannheim, ZullmmaO) remain unaffected. ²An impediment to admission in accordance with section 4 subsection 2 number 2 clause 2 is also considered an impediment to enrollment. ³By way of derogation from section 4 subsection 3, all decisions must be made by the examination committee responsible for the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.) instead of the admissions committee if no selection process takes place.

(3) The regulations on admission and enrollment of the University of Mannheim (ZullmmaO) remain unaffected in its valid version unless determined otherwise in these Statutes.

Section 2 – Deadlines

(1) Applications for admission for the fall semester must be submitted until 31 May of each year (definitive deadline).

(2) ¹Proof of English proficiency as stipulated in section 4 subsection 1 number 2 can be submitted until 15 August of the same year (definitive deadline). ²Upon request to the responsible Student Services office, the admissions committee may extend this deadline to the day of enrollment. ³The request must be submitted until 14 August of the same year and must include reasons for the extension.

Section 3 – Form of the Application

(1) ¹The application for admission form must be submitted electronically in the form required by the University of Mannheim via the web portal; additionally, the documents listed in subsection 2 must be submitted electronically or in a file format approved by the university and by means of an accepted form of electronic transfer. ²Language test certificates that are submitted to the university directly by the test centers may be submitted in hard copy. ³If it is not possible to submit the application electronically due to hardship, the application may be submitted in writing or verbally on record upon request.

(2) The following additional documents are required according to section 1 subsection 1 sentence 1 clause 2:

1. documents of proof in accordance with section 7 subsection 1 numbers 4, 5, 8 to 10 ZullmmaO,
2. documents of proof that the admission requirements listed in section 4 are met,
3. documents of proof that the selection criteria listed in section 7 are met.

(3) The University of Mannheim may request that applicants submit originals or a notarized copies of the documents listed in subsection 2; originals or notarized copies may be required in particular for application for admission forms.

Section 4 – Admission Requirements

(1) Applicants for the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.) have to meet the following admission requirements:

1. ¹Applicants are required to have
 - a) a bachelor's degree in law or

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

- b) a degree recognized as equivalent by the admissions committee if the applicant has completed at least 20 ECTS credits in law courses from a German or foreign higher education institution or an officially recognized public university of cooperative education (Berufsakademie). ²The bachelor's degree must correspond to at least 240 ECTS credits or have a standard period of study of at least eight semesters or four years. ³First degrees recognized as equivalent are in particular degrees in business studies, political science and social sciences. ⁴The admissions committee may waive the requirement of proof of law contents for applicants with a first degree recognized as equivalent if the applicant can prove their qualification for the Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.) by different means.

2. ¹Applicants have to provide proof of sufficient English proficiency. ²Proof is provided if the applicant successfully completed at least one year in a program of study with English as main language of instruction and examination or studied in a school with English as the language of instruction for at least one year and obtained a University Entrance Qualification (HZB) at this school. ³If an applicant has obtained neither of the above, the following test results can serve as proof of English proficiency:

- a) certificate of the Test of English as a Foreign Language Internet Based Test (TOEFL iBT) with a score of at least 90 points;
- b) certificate of the International English Language Testing System – Academic Test (IELTS) with an overall band score of at least 6.5,
- c) an equivalent result of a test recognized as comparable. The admissions committee decides on the comparability of the test on a case-by-case basis.

⁴Only test results obtained no more than two years prior to the deadline in accordance with section 2 subsection 1 will be recognized as proof. ⁵Any other type of documents serving as proof of an applicant's English proficiency will be considered sufficient if they can be recognized as equivalent.

(2) Applicants for the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.) have to meet the following additional admission requirements:

1. ¹Submission of the application in due time and form. ²If the bachelor's degree in accordance with subsection 1 number 1 has not been completed by the end of the definitive deadline defined in section 2 subsection 1 due to the fact that individual examinations have not been completed and it is anticipated that the degree will be completed in due time before the beginning of the master's program in Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.), admission may be requested provided the applicant is able to prove completion of at least 190 ECTS credits. ³Proof of the credits earned must be submitted within the definitive deadline defined in section 2 subsection 1. ⁴In this case, admission is subject to the proven completion of the degree in accordance with subsection 1 number 1 by the date defined in the official letter of admission or by the first registration for an exam at the latest. ⁵If proof is not provided in due time, admission to the master's program will be rescinded.

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

2. ¹There may not be any impediments to admission; a particular impediment to admission exists if an applicant has lost their eligibility to take exams in the same program or another program in law. ²The following programs are considered equal:

- a) programs that lead to the same degree;
- b) programs that have the same name or a similar name as the desired program; this also applies to translations of the name of a program;
- c) as well as programs teaching students essentially the same competences; this is the case if at least 70 percent of the competences to be acquired in the desired program match the competences of the other program.

³Sentence 2 does not apply if the loss of eligibility to take exams is based on having failed a final attempt at an examination in a field that is not covered by the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.).

(3) ¹The admissions committee decides whether a degree or a qualification is considered equivalent or comparable and thus meets the admission requirements. ²For the recognition of foreign degrees, the recommendations of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs as well as cooperation agreements between universities must be taken into account. ³In cases of doubt, the Central Office for Foreign Education (Zentralstelle für ausländisches Bildungswesen - ZAB) is consulted.

Section 5 – Admissions Committee

(1) ¹The School of Law and Economics appoints at least one admissions committee for the preparation of the selection process. ²An admissions committee is composed of at least two members. ³The members of an admissions committee must be staff members whose main employer is the university; at least one member must be a university teacher. ⁴The committee members' term of office is one year. ⁵They may be reappointed.

(2) Upon completion of the selection procedure, the admissions committee reports its experiences to the school council of the School of Law and Economics and makes suggestions for the further development of the selection procedure.

(3) The admissions committee may consult up to two additional people familiar with the relevant program of study; these people do not have a vote.

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

Section 6 – Selection Process

(1) ¹The admissions committee selects potential students based on the selection criteria of section 7 and prepares a ranking. ²The President of the university decides which candidates will be admitted; this decision is based on the recommendations of the admissions committee.

(2) Admission is denied if the applicant is excluded from the admissions process due to higher-ranking law, especially if the documents as laid out in section 3 subsection 2 were not submitted in due time and form by the definitive deadline as stipulated in section 2 subsection 1 or if another impediment to admission exists.

Section 7 – Selection Criteria

(1) The admissions committee takes the following criteria into account when preparing a ranking in the selection process:

1. the final grade or the current average grade of the bachelor's program according to section 4 subsection 2 number 1,
2. the letter of motivation written by the applicant and
3. other previous experiences that are relevant to the desired program in accordance with section 6 subsection 2 sentence 2 number 3 HZVO, in particular vocational training or working experience in a recognized training vocation as well as special previous experiences, practical experiences, especially voluntary services or extracurricular activities and qualifications proving the eligibility of the applicant for the chosen degree program and the typical subsequent profession.

(2) Each applicant receives a score for each selection criterion according to the following regulations; the admissions committee evaluates the submitted documents:

1. ¹For the final grade or the current average grade of the bachelor's program according to section 4 subsection 2 number 1 a maximum of 124 points may be given. ²The grade, including the first decimal, is translated into points. ³124 points may be given for the grade 1.0 and 0 points may be given for the grade 4.0. ⁴The points for the remaining grades in between are calculated linearly in steps of 0.1 and rounded. ⁵If the higher education institution at which the applicant is pursuing their bachelor's degree does not provide the current average grade, the average grade is calculated from all module grades or examination grades weighted in ECTS credits the applicant has achieved in the course of their bachelor's program up until the selection process. ⁶If the applicant does not provide any proof which may serve as a basis to calculate

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

an average grade, they are assigned the grade “4.0” for the purpose of the selection process. ⁷If the final grade or average grade is indicated in a grading system which does not correspond to the grading system used for the bachelor's programs of the School of Law and Economics of the University of Mannheim, the grade is converted according to the recommendations of the ZAB.

2. ¹For the letter of motivation written by the applicant a maximum of 36 points may be given. ²The letter of motivation must include the applicant's motivation for the desired program. ³The letter of motivation must be written in German or English and must not exceed two DIN A4 pages using font size 12; if the letter of motivation exceeds the maximum length, only the first two pages will be taken into account.
3. ¹For other previous experiences that are relevant to the desired program as described in subsection 1 number 3 a maximum of 72 points may be given. ²All experiences that prove the eligibility of the applicant for the chosen degree program will be considered. ³Working experiences are considered if they amount to a full-time employment of at least five working days with at least 38 hours per week.

(3) ¹In accordance with subsection 2 numbers 1 to 3, the points are added up; the maximum score is 232 points. ²Based on the score the applicants are ranked in descending order. ³In cases where applicants achieve the same score, selection is based on the average grade that was achieved in the degree that is required for admission to the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.); if applicants then have the same score, selection is decided by lot.

(4) In order to guarantee a consistent procedure, the school council of the School of Law and Economics can pass additional regulations for the consideration of proofs for individual selection criteria, in particular for the conversion of grades and for previous experiences as described in subsection 2; the admissions committee is bound by these regulations.

Section 8 – Commencement; Final Provisions

(1) ¹These Statutes will come into effect on the day after their publication in the general section of the Bulletin of the President's Office (Amtliche Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats). ²During the admissions process for the fall semester 2021/22 they are applied for the first time.

(2) ¹At the same time the Selection Statutes for the master's program Master of Comparative Business Law (M.C.B.L.) of the University of Mannheim as at 3 March 2011, last amended on 12 December 2017 cease to be effective.

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office (“Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats”) is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.

²Admissions processes that are not yet completed by the time of the commencement of these Selection Statutes are to be concluded on the basis of the formerly valid selection statutes.

Article 2 of the amendment of 4 November 2021 stipulates:

- (1) These regulations will come into effect on the day after their publication in the Bulletin of the President's Office (Amtliche Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats).
- (2) ¹Article 1 will apply for the first time during the application process for the fall semester 2022/2023. ²Admissions processes that are not yet completed by the time of the commencement of these Selection Statutes are to be concluded on the basis of the formerly valid selection statutes.

PLEASE NOTE:

English translations of Auswahlsatzungen are intended solely as a convenience to non-German-reading students. Only the German text published in the Bulletin of the President's Office ("Bekanntmachungen des Rektorats") is legally binding. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation shall prevail.