

The Chair of International Finance (Prof. Dr. Stefan Ruenzi) is offering a part-time position as

Student Research Assistant (all genders)

starting on 15 September 2024.

We are looking for a Bachelor / Master student (m/f/d) from any faculty / programme who will assist the chair with a data collection project. (15–20 hours per month).

The data collection will take place physically in the Schneckenhof library, so the position is ideal for someone who tends to study there.

We intend the new student assistant to start in September.

Your tasks include:

- Assistance in the collection of data
- General administrative assistance at the chair

Your profile:

- You typically study in the Schneckenhof library
- English or German language skills
- Ability to diligently execute tasks
- Bachelor students are very welcome to apply
- Any study program and year is welcome, finance is not required

What we offer:

This position is ideal for someone who typically spends their time in the Schneckenhof library.

To apply, please send us your CV, a transcript of your grades, and indicate in your email how many days per week you usually study in the Schneckenhof library. A cover letter is NOT necessary.

Your salary is determined by the highest degree you hold and is the standard remuneration across all universities in Baden-Württemberg:

With a high-school degree (i.e. no university degree yet): 13.25 € / h

With a Bachelor's degree: 14.09 € / h

With a Master's degree: 19.14 € / h
