

University of
Sheffield

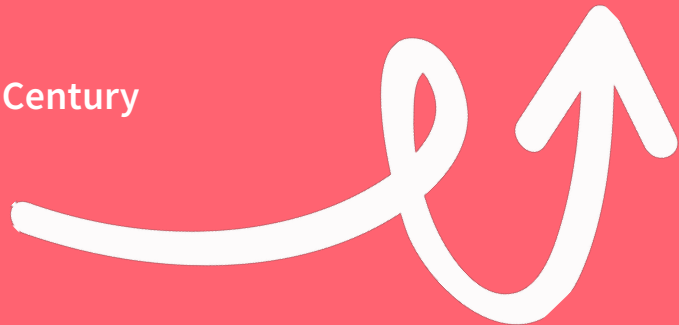

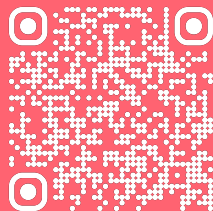

Sheffield International Summer School

Experience university life with credit bearing modules (5 ECTS), make friends from around the world, explore British culture and take part in social activities and excursions.

Dates: 19 July 2025 - 3 August 2025

Subjects:

- Designing towards sustainable regeneration
- People Power: Protest & Social Change in 20th Century Britain
- Reflective leadership for successful teams

University of
Sheffield

Sheffield International Summer School 2025

Designing towards sustainable regeneration

- Learn how social, cultural, economic, political and ethical issues impact sustainable regeneration.
- Explore a range of conceptual design and research methods.
- Evaluate design within the context of British history.
- Plus experience university life, make friends from around the world, explore British culture and take part in social activities and excursions.

Dates: 19 July 2025 - 3 August 2025

Fee: £2,195 (includes accommodation, social activities and field trips) - early bird and partner discounts available.

The tallest academic building in the UK and noted for its architectural significance.

People Power: Protest & Social Change in 20th Century Britain

- Explore how various groups sought to challenge the status quo and how this changed the lives of British people.
- Learn how campaigning groups secured change - from the women's right to vote and challenging social inequalities to youth movements and the experience of migrants.
- Discover how Britain sought to establish its new identity in an ever-changing world.
- Plus experience university life, make friends from around the world, explore British culture and take part in social activities and excursions.

Dates: 19 July 2025 - 3 August 2025

Fee: £2,195 (includes accommodation, social activities and field trips) - early bird and partner discounts available.

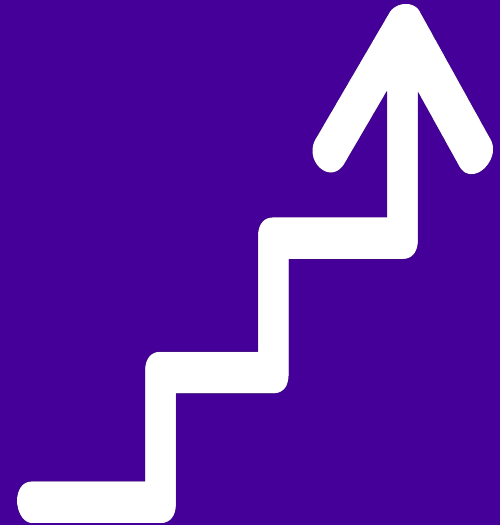

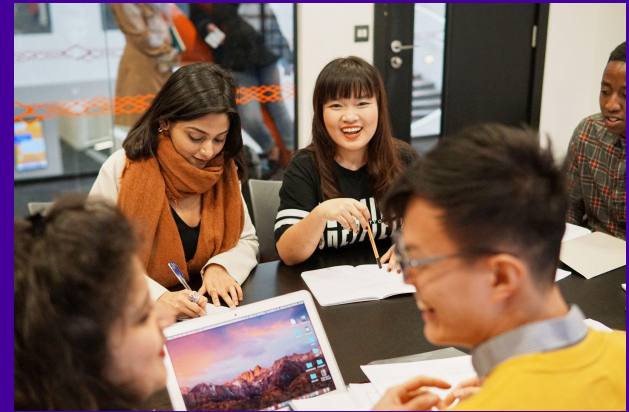

University of
Sheffield

Reflective leadership for successful teams

- Review leadership and teamwork theories and apply them to real-life case studies.
- Explore the principles of leadership development and how they are applied in practice.
- Reflect on leadership and teamwork theories and enhance your own behaviours and skills in these areas.
- Plus experience university life, make friends from around the world, explore British culture and take part in social activities and excursions.

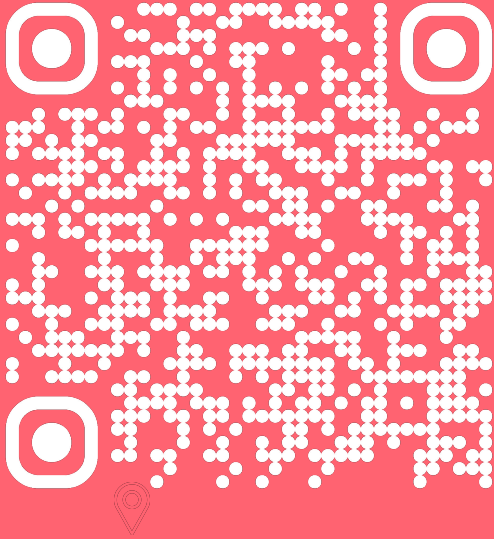

Dates: 19 July 2025 - 3 August 2025

Fee: £2,195 (includes accommodation, social activities and field trips) - early bird and partner discounts available.

University of
Sheffield

Get in touch!

sheffield.ac.uk/international-summer-school

summer@sheffield.ac.uk

University of Sheffield

Sheffield International Summer School

Experience university life with credit bearing modules (5 ECTS), make friends from around the world, explore British culture and take part in social activities and excursions.

Dates: 19 July 2025 - 3 August 2025

Subjects:

- Designing towards sustainable regeneration
- People Power: Protest & Social Change in 20th Century Britain
- Reflective leadership for successful teams

