

The Chair of Political Science, International Relations at the University of Mannheim invites applications for the position of a

Post-doctoral Researcher (m/f/d) (TV-L E13)

The salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications and will be public sector pay scheme TV-L E13, with additional employer benefits. The contract is limited to 19 months, starting 1 February 2023, and ending 31 August 2024.

The research and teaching of the team at this Chair focuses broadly on theoretically informed empirical peace and conflict research. For more information, see the Chair's website.

Your responsibilities:

- Contributing to the research at the Chair
- Teaching two courses per semester in International Relations/conflict research, preferably in English
- Supervising BA dissertation theses
- Contributing to administrative and organizational tasks at the Chair

Your profile:

- PhD in Political Science with specialization in peace and conflict research broadly conceived (completed or close to completion),
- An international dimension of the research interests within peace and conflict is not required but would be highly welcome
- Excellent skills in quantitative research methods
- Excellent English language skills
- Ambition and ability to contribute to a vibrant research environment

We offer:

- A highly supportive and motivated team
- Opportunity to develop your own research agenda
- Funding for conferences
- Excellent research environment

Applications from individuals belonging to a group usually underrepresented in the social sciences are particularly encouraged.

Applications in English (cover letter, cv including list of publications and potential teaching experience, copies of academic degrees) should be sent electronically as one pdf by 15 September 2022 to Christine.Krisch@uni-mannheim.de. Informal questions can be directed to Prof. Sabine Carey at Sabine.Carey@uni-mannheim.de. You can also contact her if you would like to talk about this position at the Conflict Research Society Conference in Belfast 7-9 Sept. 2022.

Data Protection: Please note that the transmission of an unencrypted email may endanger confidentiality and prevent unauthorized access by third parties. Application documents will only be returned if you enclose a stamped return envelope. Otherwise, they will be destroyed in accordance with current data protection law after the application procedure has ended. Electronic applications will also be deleted after completion of the application process.
<https://www.uni-mannheim.de/en/about/employment-opportunities/data-protection-during-the-job-application-process/>