

The Department of Economics at the School of Law and Economics of the University of Mannheim invites applications to fill the position of limited to a period of five years, starting on August 1, 2021. The limitation is based on § 50 para. 2 p. 1 no. 3 of the Landeshochschulgesetz (LHG) of Baden-Württemberg.

The professor represents the field of applied macroeconomics in research and teaching. We are looking for a macroeconomist broadly defined. Applications from all subfields of macroeconomics are welcome. The professor is expected to teach doctoral candidates at the Center for Doctoral Studies in Economics of the Graduate School of Economics and Social Sciences and to raise external funding.

The conditions for an appointment are stipulated in section 47 of the Act on Higher Education of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (LHG). Applicants are requested to provide proof of a higher education degree, pedagogical aptitude, a doctorate and additional academic achievements proven by a habilitation or equivalent academic achievements from within or outside of the higher education sector.

The successful candidate will be appointed as a temporary civil servant if all prerequisites are met.

The University of Mannheim places great importance on comprehensive guidance of its students and therefore expects professors to be present at the university for their students. Moreover, the University of Mannheim expects a new faculty member to relocate to Mannheim or the greater area in order to become an active member of the university community.

The University of Mannheim is committed to increasing the quota of women in research and teaching and thus encourages women with adequate qualifications to apply. Applications of equally qualified disabled candidates are given preferential consideration.

Please submit your application by 31 October 2020 to Prof. Volker Nocke, Head of the Department of Economics of the University of Mannheim, D-68131 Mannheim.
