The University of Mannheim, Business School invites applications for the position of a

Full Professor of Finance (W3)

The position can be filled at the earliest possible date.

The professorship shall mainly focus its research and teaching on the subject of Finance/Financial Institutions.

Candidates must have a proven track record of publications in top-tier academic journals in Finance or related disciplines. Experience in the acquisition of third-party funding is expected. Teaching obligations include all study programs of the Business School, as well as the doctoral program. Teaching is in English language. The professorship will belong to the Area “Finance” of the Business School and it is expected that all classes and courses offered are jointly agreed upon within the Area “Finance.”

The requirements for employment conform to § 47 Landeshochschulgesetz (LHG, state university law of the state Baden-Wuerttemberg). Applicants should have acquired a university degree, pedagogical qualification, a doctoral degree and additional academic achievements. These can be attested by a habilitation or through other equivalent academic achievements.

Given its commitment to increase the number of women in research and teaching, the University of Mannheim strongly encourages qualified female researchers to apply.

Applications with the usual documents (cover letter, CV including list of publications, other supporting material) should be sent by mail or email to the address below no later than 31 January 2018. Severely handicapped applicants with equal qualifications are given preference.
