All secondary literature and other sources are marked and listed in the bibliography. The same applies to all charts, diagrams and illustrations as well as to all Internet resources. Moreover, I consent to my paper being electronically stored and sent anonymously in order to be checked for plagiarism. I am aware that the paper cannot be evaluated and may be graded "failed" ("nicht ausreichend") if the declaration is not made."

If the declaration is not made, the examination may not be evaluated and graded "failed" ("nicht ausreichend"). For term papers and project-related papers in English, the English declaration shall be included as well.

Section 16 – Failing and Redoing Coursework or Retaking Examinations (including Examinations and Preliminary Coursework), Failing the Final Examination Attempt

- (1) Coursework or examinations graded with "failed" ("nicht ausreichend") or "failed" ("nicht bestanden") or are regarded as graded with "failed" ("nicht ausreichend") or "failed" ("nicht bestanden") are considered failed.
- (2) Coursework or examinations which were done as required preliminary coursework for an examination and subsequently failed may be redone. Failing a related examination in the same semester usually means that the required preliminary coursework must be redone and passed. The examiner of the retake examination decides on exceptions upon request of a student. In accordance with sentence 3, the request is to be submitted in due time and before the examination concerned takes place, otherwise the preliminary coursework is to be redone.
- (3) Failed examinations may generally be retaken once. If the second examination attempt is not successful (re-sit examination), the student can take a second re-sit examination on one occasion at the most during his or her entire master's program (extra chance). The master's thesis is excluded from the regulation stated in sentence 2.
- (4) The failure of an examination is final if the last available attempt at the examination was not passed. In this case, an official notification shall be issued by the examination committee.
- (5) Students may not retake an examination that they have passed, e.g. to improve their grades.

Section 17 – Annulment of Examination Results

- (1) According to section 13a subsection 1, the grades for individual examinations and coursework are determined by the respective examiner. The following grades may be assigned:

1.0	very good ("sehr gut")	an excellent performance
2.0	good ("gut")	a performance which substantially exceeds the average requirements
3.0	satisfactory ("befriedigend")	a performance corresponding to the average requirements
4.0	fair ("ausreichend")	a performance which, in spite of its flaws, suffices to meet the requirements

Grades may be differentiated by adding or subtracting 0.3. The grades 0.7, 4.3, 4.7 and 5.3 shall not be assigned. In cases of doubt, the grades shall be rounded down in favor of the student.

- (2) An examination is considered passed if it is graded "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend") or "passed". A module is considered passed if each piece of coursework and examination of the courses in the module were passed. If a module consists of several individual examinations, the module grade derives from the average of the individual examinations' grades weighted in ECTS credits that are relevant for the final grade, unless the respective regulations regarding minors taught at other schools are based on a divergent grading system.
- (3) Grades shall be assigned with one decimal. In case of averaged grades, all decimals but the first are dropped without rounding.

Section 17a – Breaches of Procedure

- (1) The examination committee may remedy disturbances of the examination procedure or other breaches of procedure by virtue of office or upon request from a student by deciding on appropriate measures or orders. - (2) Any disturbances are to be reported immediately by the affected student during the written examination or oral examination:
  1. in case of a written examination to the supervisor,
  2. in case of an oral examination to the examiner and
  3. in case of any other type of examination to the responsible examiner.

Any other kinds of breaches of procedure are to be reported by the affected student in due time as soon as the student acknowledges a particular breach of procedure. The reports according to sentences 1 and 2 shall be entered into the examination minutes. If the disturbances of the examination procedure or any other kind of breaches of procedure relevant to the evaluation of the respective examination are not reported in due time, they are deemed insignificant.

- (3) If the examination committee did not take measures of compensation in accordance with subsection 3 for a disturbance that occurred during an examination and was reported without delay or for other breaches of procedure, or those measures were inadequate, the student shall address his or her request for the necessary measures of compensation to the examination committee in writing immediately after the examination. The topic of the master's thesis shall allow for the thesis to be completed within the period of time determined in section 9 subsection 2.
- (2) The student shall be granted the chance to put forward suggestions for a topic. However, no legal right arises to be assigned the suggested topic.

The faculty member assigning the master's thesis is the evaluator.

- (5) The master's thesis shall be evaluated by the responsible examiner. Section 17 applies to the grading of the master's thesis. If the thesis is graded "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"), two additional examiners appointed by the examination committee shall be consulted. In case of differing evaluations, the master's thesis is considered passed if the majority of the examiners grade it with at least "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend"). In this case, the grade derives from the arithmetic mean of the individual evaluations, which shall be at least "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend"). The master's thesis is failed if the majority of the examiners grade it "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"). In this case, the grade is "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"). The student shall be informed about the result of the master's thesis four weeks after submission at the latest.
- (6) A master's thesis may be retaken once if it was graded "failed" by the second examiner as well. In this case, the student shall register for the master's thesis again within six weeks after having been informed about the result.

The student is obliged to explain in writing why he or she is not responsible for having to exceed the deadline. The chair of the examination committee may decide on whether the extension is granted or not.
